EDENSTAR | MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA

Therese Bourne

The professional clothing designer Therese Bourne spent 15 years creating commercial kids' wear in Hong Kong and London and women's wear in Australia before launching Edenstar in 2003. Inspired by her twins, Eden and Stella, she set out to produce kids' clothing that was both stylish and contemporary, and to create a look that captured the innocence of childhood. According to Ms. Bourne, children's clothing can be both beautiful and practical.
